Add-ins.Tuesday, April 02, 2006 Loin of pork and bacon Kokuhikanaka This is the pork loin that will become pork bacon, and which I will fry up, then slice and serve like a normal bacon sandwich. I like to serve it on toast with some green salad. 1kg boneless loin of pork 1 teaspoon sea salt 1 teaspoon pepper 500g fat In a bowl, combine the sea salt, pepper, and a few grains of salt. Rub this mixture well into the pork loin, making sure to get the gristle, fat, and the muscles under the skin. This will help to draw out the fat. Set aside this for at least 30 minutes to marinate.
